

Tarbiyyat Objectives

Establish Salaat Centers

1. Establish additional Salaat Centers in Redmond and Kent.
2. Identify members who live within 10 min drive of the centers including the Lynnwood Center.
3. Call these members on every Thursday of the week to remind them of congregational prayers offered at these centers on Friday.

Increase MTA Viewership

1. Create a list of families that do have MTA home.
2. Call and ask how jamaat can help e.g. helping in setting up dishes, financial help etc.

Encourage Essential Tarbiyyat Reading

1. Ask jamaat members to read following books in the next one year (in order of difficulty, all are available in both English and Urdu):
 - a. My mother (Ch. Zafar ullah Khan)
 - b. Way of the seekers (Khalifa tul Massih II)
 - c. Like Supreme (B.A. Orchard)
 - d. Philosophy of the teachings of Islam (Promised Messiah)

Educate Parents on Internet and TV Parental Controls

1. Hold a class at a general meeting for fathers to teach them:
 - a. What is the Internet?
 - b. How to use parental controls in IE, AOL etc?
 - c. How movies and computer games are rated
 - d. How to use parental controls on Comcast, DirectTV etc.

2. Provide technical support if parents need it.

Setup Parenting Shura

1. Hold a quarterly shura at the General Meetings to discuss parenting issues, share ideas and track process. Examples of issues could be:

- a. Kids spend too much time watching TV, playing Video Games etc.
- b. Parents do not know who their kids are hanging out with.
- c. Helping Kids deal with peer pressure (other issues can be suggested)
